

The RLA laureates Farmer-to-Farmer Network

The RLA laureates present here, on the occasion of the 25th anniversary of the award, who have special interest in sustainable agriculture, commit themselves to promote or participate in Farmer to Farmer Network, as a way to promote the development of a new agricultural paradigm. The Network will aim at:

1. The exchange of successful experiences;
2. The dissemination of sustainable technologies with special emphasis on the recovery of traditional wisdom
3. The use of local resources
4. Cooperation with other networks with similar aims, as a contribution in the formation of a new agro-ecological culture in our countries.
